SIR,

I have the honor to forward herewith correspondence ending with letter No.C.3/3336/28-29 dated 13-2-30 from the Deputy Commissioner, Bangalore District, in the matter of reconstructing the Sri Anjaneya-swamy Temple at Kattibelle, Anekal Taluk, within the Fort and to state that the existing temple outside the village is dilapidated and the Archak of the temple who is enjoying the lands has agreed to rebuild it in the Fort at his own cost. The foundation for the work is said to have been laid long ago.

The Deputy Commissioner reports that on account of the dilapidate condition of the temple and stoppage of Puja the Inam lands were order to be leased out for 5 years and the Archak having undertaken in the meanwhile to reconstruct the temple and conduct puja in the temple was allowed to be in the possession of the lands. He recommends that sanction may be accorded to demolish the old temple and rebuild it in another place.

The villagers have given a Mutchalika to the effect that there is no objection for building the temple on the proposed site. The Archa has also given a mutchalika binding himself to build the temple at his own cost within one year or to pay a penalty of R. 500/- in default.

In the circumstances reported by the Deputy Commissioner and the local officers, I recommend that sanction of Government may be accorde to demolish the old temple and rebuild a new temple on the new site the entire file containing the Manazars and plan is enclosed for reference and obliging return.
